ABOUT US

Devang Patel Institute of Advance Technology and Research (DEPSTAR) is a constituent institute of CHARUSAT. The institute is managed through a think tank of technocrats, administrators, scientists and engineers, educationalists, businessman, stakeholders and other well-wishers from all parts of the world. DEPSTAR is patronized by IPCO Industries, headed by Philanthropist and Industrialist Shri. Devang Patel. The institute envisions being a forerunner in teaching and research in advanced technologies. In the years to come, it aims to be an institute with advanced infrastructure, distinguished teachers, networking with global institutes, and implementing the most modern processes.

VISION

To be known as leading institute in the education and research by imparting knowledge which meets the requirements of digital age.

MISSION

To engender globally competent engineers for the betterment of society.
